TESTIMONIALS

"Steph brings a joy and devotion to her craft that is rarely seen. She has an excellent method of approaching beginning level students with her clear and effective manner."

Patter Hellstrom, Fine Arts Chairperson, St Peter's Prep, Jersey City, NJ

"Awesome, lively, engaging and engaged - clearly loves what she does and is great at it!"

Parent feedback from a Metropolitan Museum of Art family class participant

"[Stephanie is] cheerful, thorough, interested, exciting, involving, engaging, curious, genuine, friendly, captivating, enthusiastic... and to say more I would need my thesaurus."

Parent feedback from a Metropolitan Museum of Art family class participant

"I can't say enough good things about Stephanie as a teacher and a person. She is so warm and intelligent and kind and thorough and flexible. You can really see how she respects each individual student and really listens and encourages as she skillfully guides...she is also so infectiously inspiring in her approach that it would be rewarding to accompany her in whatever she might be leading and you would be sure to learn and grow a lot."

Parent testimonial from a homeschool drawing class participant

"Stephanie couples her book-making expertise with an engaging approach to which children and adults respond with equal enthusiasm."

Sarah Nicholls, Program Manager, Center for Book Arts, New York, NY

"Stephanie has the capacity to transform the visual arts program in any school where she is the art teacher."

Paul Sproll, PhD, Head, Department of Art Education, RISD, Providence, RI

"Stephanie has been the highlight of the class...and an inspiration to all with whom she has worked."

Carole Villucci, Associate Curator of Education, RISD Museum, Providence, RI

"She is one of the most talented young illustrators I've seen."
